The Great Family Paper.

ENORMOUS CIRCULATION!
One Hundred & Fifty Thousand a Week

THE NEW YORK LEDGER IS the great Family Newspaper which monopolizes the services of all the best writers in America. FANNY FERN does not write a line for any paper but the LEDGER. SYLVANUS COBB, Jr., also writes exclusively for it, and Mrs. STODDARD, Miss GREEN, Mrs. VAUGHAN, and "all the rest of 'em" constantly enrich its pages. Every number of the LEDGER contains large and splendid engravings, illustrating the thrilling tales of these pre-eminent writers; also, the Latest Fashions, and every other attraction which it is possible to give in a newspaper of eight large pages.

☞ Wherever there is a news office the LEDGER can be bought every week as it comes out. It is also sent by mail for two dollars a year or two copies for three dollars, payable inflexibly in advance. All letters must be addressed to
ROBERT BONNER, Editor and Proprietor,
44 Ann street, New York.

 Now is a good time to subscribe, as COBB has just commenced a new Sea Story, and EMERSON BENNET will soon begin another. No subscriptions taken for a less period than a year. je10 d&w1m

THE EYE AND EAR. DURING my late tour in Europe, I obtained several new Instruments and Remedies of inestimable value in my specialty. There is now nothing known to the faculty in either hemisphere with which I am not familiar, which, combined with an extensive practice for 30 years in the city of New York, enables me to restore SIGHT and HEARING in many cases hitherto deemed hopeless. Cataract positively cured by a new method, without pain; also, squinting or Cross Eyes in a few seconds. Amaurosis cured in the majority of cases. Granulations, Ulcers, Films or Specs, and Watery Eye, invariably; also, Deafness, Singing in the Ear, and Discharges, by an entirely new process. My "Treatise on the Eye" (price 50 cents), also ARTIFICIAL EYES, which move and look exactly like the natural eye, and are inserted without an operation, and all Remedies, forwarded by mail. Consultations by letter receive special attention.

Broils vs. Fries!

Robinson's Patent Gridiron
AGAINST THE FRYING PAN!

IT IS A WELL-KNOWN FACT that meat broiled is much more palatable, tender, and healthful than when fried. All sliced meats ought to be broiled. The new Gridiron is as convenient as the Frying Pan, and much more economical. Having a downward draught, it takes all the smoke and gas up the chimney, cooks the meat through in its own juices without burning it, saves all the fat, reduces meat bills full 25 per cent., and can be used over a wood or coal fire.

CHRISTADORO'S HAIR-DYE
STILL TRIUMPHANT!

CONTRAST THE TINTS brought out in the hair by Christadoro's matchless revitalizing Hair-Dye, and those produced by application of the burning fluids ordinarily sold as Hair-Dyes. You see at once that the color is natural in one case, and unnatural in the other; and the simple reason is, that Christadoro's is the ONLY preparation which, by its exact chemical combination, operates on natural and immutable principles. Made, sold, and applied (in ten private rooms) at Christadoro's, 6 Astor House, Broadway, New York. Also, for sale by the principal Druggists and Perfumers throughout the country.

The Best! The Very Best!!
MANY PERSONS WHO HAVE tried the articles for sale by others, and been disappointed in their expectations, have decidedly asserted that J. Cristadoro's Excelsior Liquid Hair-Dye is not only the best preparation for dyeing the hair, but that the others which have been so greatly lauded bear no comparison whatever to his.

J. Cristadoro's Excelsior Liquid Hair-Dye will invariably perform what it promises, which no other Dyes will do. The black it produces is not a dead, glittering color, but beautiful and lifelike; the brown and auburn assimilate so nearly with the colors of nature that it is impossible to detect the presence of a Dye.

WEDNESDAY, - - JUNE 25, 1856

☞ The editor of the Journal is exceedingly exercised now about the antecedents of James Buchanan on the slavery question. He can't be trusted on that subject is the South; Prentice, Jack Hale, Sumner & Co. can't term him, as having shown in his past life, a repugnance to the peculiar institutions. Virginia, and the Southern States generally, adopted Buchanan as the trustworthy man at first, and voted for his nomination perseveringly in the National Convention. Virginia, Louisiana, and Tennessee, made the same selection again, a few weeks ago, at Cincinnati; but the editor of the Louisville Journal, who now prefers the Black Republican to the Democratic party, feels very unwilling to trust Buchanan. He has a higher appreciation of Southern rights than the Southern States men, who have, from first to last, been most fastidious on this subject. The reasons why George D. Prentice can't trust Buchanan are very refreshing:

First. Buchanan's name is on a report made to a public meeting, held in Lancaster thirty-seven years ago: and that report is against the extension of slavery.

Second. Buchanan felt a repugnance to the annexation of Texas, on account of its being slave territory. He advocated it, however, believing that it would mitigate, rather than otherwise, the evils of slavery.

Third. Buchanan was for extending the Missouri Compromise line to the Pacific, before the compromise measures of 1852, and very inconsistently afterward approved those measures; and now supports the Kansas-Nebraska bill, which repeals the Missouri Compromise altogether.

We don't wonder that the editor of the Journal feels nervous about trusting a man of bad raising on the slavery question: he can never get over it—that is, his experience. He himself started out in life with the declaration, that "slavery is a monster of evil; a vampire, draining away the blood of the Republic." He wrote and published, in 1844, that "all men have a right to liberty, no matter what color." He wrote and published, in 1845: "We have ever looked forward to the day when Kentucky would contain within her bounds no bondmen, and we hope to see the light of such a day."

He opposed the annexation of Texas, with all his ability and perseverance, and was exceedingly indignant when it was accomplished.

Speaking of the liberty party, he said: "They are, above all others, the men upon whose heads rests the sin of extending the area of slavery: for they were warned and besought, through the public press, and by their fellow-citizens, to frown down all connection with Texas and her peculiar institutions." He made light of the Wilmot Proviso, and counseled the President not to veto it. He sedulously encouraged the Freesoilers of the free States to resist the uncompromising South, and sneered at those who considered Freesoilism a reproach upon Northern men. In 1848, he said:

"Since the death of Silas Wright, some of the Locofoco have asserted that he was opposed to the Wilmot Proviso. They seem to consider it their duty to vindicate his fair fame in this way. Do they consider it very criminal in a Northern statesman to favor a measure to prevent the South from gaining the ascendancy in the councils of the nation? Do they fancy that patriotism requires a Northern man to endeavor to strengthen an interest hostile to his own?"

As to the rest, read the record of the editor of the Journal, in another column, and remember that he denounced the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and has shown, from first to last, a sympathy with the Black Republican crusade. He showed his willingness to form a union with them to elect Fillmore, only a few days ago; and openly prefers their success to that of the Democratic party. He, in fact, exalts the party with faint censures. He says:

"The Black Republican party of the Northern States is bad enough and dangerous enough; its claims and pretensions never will be, and never should be, admitted or recognized; but we believe, in our hearts, that this party is less outrageous in its proposed aggressions upon the South, than the Northern Locofoco party would be, if no longer hoping to make Southern capital, it were left to the unbridled indulgence of its own leveling passions."

Such is the record of the man who undertakes to rail at Buchanan, on the grounds we have mentioned. He whose antecedents are as black as the record of J. R. Giddings, who has done more effective service for the Abolition cause than even Horace Greeley; and whose aspirations now are for Northern ascendency, undertakes to object to Buchanan, and cavil at opinions of by-gone days! He warns the South against the opinions of such men as the statesmen and politicians of old Virginia! He raving at Buchanan, the chosen standard-bearer of the only party North who are not engaged in a crusade against the South! He, with his record staring this community in the face, affecting to be fastidious about a man's opinions about slavery! To make the burlesque complete, Greeley, Hale, Sumner, and Seward, ought to publish their objections to Buchanan on account of his Freesoil proclivities. Mr. Fillmore, the Journal's pretended candidate, would do well to put in his objections, in like manner, with his Erie letter, and his votes in Congress, thoroughly Abolition, in his hand.

What must be thought of a man, with the antecedents of Prentice, advocating the election of Fillmore, and at the same time railing at anti-slavery opinions held a long time ago by the opposing candidate. The sot, railing at the man who was once in his life intoxicated, or the prostitute, suddenly fastidious about libertinism, is not a more disgusting spectacle.

All men of sober sense see that there is now but one national party in this country. They have selected a man as a candidate for the Presidency, who has gone through all the vicissitudes and temptations of a long political life; he has long since taken the position he now occupies. There is no obscurity about his record. The South know it all; the national men of the North, who have stood like a rock against the surges of fanaticism and prejudice of their own section, know it. They selected Buchanan because he had been an actor on these subjects, and had, after all the shifting and changing of issues and aspects, taken and held, with a firm step, a sound national position.

It is amusing to see the rottens of all classes, who have been ready to cheat the South, not only in past times, but lately, putting forward objections to Buchanan for his antecedents on the slavery question—antecedents that date back thirty or forty years. This conduct on their part is full of the blackest treachery. It is now well known to all well informed politicians, that Fillmore's election is not thought of. The opposition to the Democracy in the North is all Black Republican. It is to assail the Democracy in the free States; and their ally, the Know-Nothings, to do what they can in the slave States in the opposition. The kinship of the two has been well settled by their united action in electing the present Congress, in their common hatred of Democracy, in their readiness to unite even now in the election of a President. All the Know-Nothings South can do is to aid the Black Republicans. Every vote they throw contributes to that end. The ticket that will succeed is headed by Buchanan or Fremont; that's obvious, and Know-Nothing editors in Kentucky know at least that much. Instead of aiding the only national party, they are playing into the hands of the Northern sectional party. All their attacks on Buchanan have that effect, if they have any. They can do Fillmore no good, make the best of them; his cause is more than hopeless. The success of Fremont over Buchanan is just what the editor of the Journal wants. Look at his own avowal of principles; look at his whole anti-slavery record. Then see his assaults daily upon Buchanan. He is not decided; he knows that he will not elect Fillmore. He knows that the defeat of Buchanan is the victory of Black Republicanism; and he sees fully the effect that his efforts will have, if they have any.

Let Southern men keep an eye upon the editor of the Journal. As the canvass advances, and the hopelessness of the Know-Nothing ticket becomes more and more obvious, they will find where the proclivities of the editor of the Journal point to. The whole Know Nothing movement now is to divide the South, when the whole mass of the North outside of the Democratic party is marshaled against her. One party South is waging war on the only friends the South has in the free States. It is idle to tell us that this is not understood amongst the leaders of the Know-Nothing party. They understand it.

☞ We have waited to see if the Common Council of this city intended to do anything to secure this city from mob law on election days; but they don't appear to regard the general voice of Louisville, or to regard their own consistency. Their organ told them before the election last August, that foreigners were raving like savage beasts; and after the election the organ told us a dreadful story, how foreigners provoked the riots and the wholesale slaughter of the bloody day. They would have made it a St. Bartholomew's day, but for the timely interference of armed bands of patriotic, brass knuckled, house-burning Americans. As it was, they, the bloody foreigners, shot down, in cold blood, innocent American citizens. This was the story, and it was not only duly published in the Journal, but it was peddled out by its faithful readers on the streets and elsewhere.

Well, what is to be done about it? Are these foreigners to be left alone again, to hide behind fences, and shoot down innocent Americans? Will the Council take no steps to protect the innocent Americans from these savage wild beasts, that stir up riot and bloodshed? Are we, at the next election, to have more innocent Americans shot down in cold blood? Shall an American Council, after indorsing the version of bloody Monday, given by the organ, reject every measure of peace proposed, and offer none themselves? If they believed a word of their own story about the sixth of August last, they would adopt most stringent measures to prevent any occasion for collision. They would listen to no paltry excuses about the rights of freemen. They would provide for the peaceable exercise of the elective franchise, and the protection of peaceable citizens on the day of election. Their refusal to do so, shows how little credit they attach to their own party falsehood. The whole world knows what elections have been in this city for more than a year past. There is not an office in it that is held by the only tenure by which a freemen should hold office; and yet the Common Council will give no assurance that we shall have any other sort of elections.

After Louisville has suffered the loss of millions of her good name and credit are prostituted, the Council are asked to show the rest of mankind that they are resolved to do better for the future; but they decline. We now ask any one outside of Louisville to look at the fact. If the Common Council believed that foreigners were the aggressors, would they not, all being Know-Nothings, adopt the most careful precautions against the occurrence of such events?

The plain truth is, peace and free suffrage are not wanted in this city. Clubs and brass knuckles are looked to to carry elections in future, as they have done in the past, and any stringent ordinance would interfere with the design. That is the secret. All that is alleged in the report against the ordinance is a mere excuse, not worth a reply. It would not affect the vote of any man not predetermined to leave free scope for violence and ruffianism at the polls.

☞ A gentleman in Henry county has received a letter from an authentic source, assuring him that the Pope is not coming over to take this country during the next four years—if over.

We make this announcement to quiet the nerves of the anti-Popes about here. We may observe, moreover, that it is not worth while to elect a Know-Nothing Chancellor, as his Holiness will not be in reach of an attachment during his official term.

☞ Wm. J. Heady will address the people upon national politics next Saturday, at 1 o'clock, P. M., at Graham's Barbecue, ten miles out on the Nashville Railroad. The cars leave the city at 8 o'clock, morning, and return at 5 o'clock, evening.

CAN'T STOP THEM.—The Boston Courier says many of the Boston Webster national Whigs will support the Buchanan ticket, and endeavors to persuade them not to do it. The Courier's efforts are of no use. The movement cannot be stopped.

☞ In reply to the charge that Mr. Fremont is a Catholic, the New York Tribune says: "Col. Fremont was baptized, reared, and confirmed in the Protestant Episcopal Church, to which he has ever adhered."

The Clay Whigs for Buck and Breck.

In noticing a ratification meeting in Cambria county, Pennsylvania, lately, the Democrat of that place says:

In addition to the inspiring remarks of those talented Democrats, McDonald, Smith, Heyer, Rhey, Pershing and Mason, we were animated by the speech of Michael Dan Maughan, heretofore known as one of the most conspicuous Old-Line Whigs in the State, and as one of the boldest, most energetic, but, at the same time, most honorable opponents of the Democratic party. A man without guile and above concealment, he is henceforth to be reckoned among the ablest and most enthusiastic advocates of Mr. Buchanan, and we are sure that his vigorous blows will tell during the coming campaign, and that his example will not be without gratifying effects.

We find in another exchange the following:

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting at Erie, Pa., last Tuesday evening, composed exclusively of "Old-Line Whigs," all going for "Old Buck." They allowed no others to participate in their meeting, and resolved for the first time in their lives to support the Democratic nominees for President and Vice President.

Some eight hundred of the neighbors to "Old Buck," all Old-Line Whigs, called on him in procession the day he was nominated and pledged him their support.

For the Louisville Democrat.

"You are Spotted!"

The Inquisition!—Natives Proscribed!

"Coming events cast their shadows before."

MESSRS. EDITORS: The significant language—"You are spotted, and if you come to the polls you'll catch Hell," was verbally addressed, on Sabbath last, to myself and other Anti-Know-Nothings of the Eighth Ward, by several notorious bullies of the Order in that disgraced and bloody field of riot. The crime for which we have been "spotted" by these fiends is, that becoming disgusted with the humbug of Know Nothingism, we promptly withdrew from all association with it, and in so doing published to the world the reasons which led us to repudiate what we considered an Anti-American cause. For this we have been "spotted," and as they say, will "catch Hell" if we attempt to exercise the rights of freemen. The Ned Buntlineites of Know-Nothingism have decreed it; we are "spotted!" and the bullies are to execute the decree in August and November. Native, as well as foreign Democrats are to be driven from the polls, and their rights again trampled upon by a mob of lawless scamps, for the majority of whom there is not a prison in the State but yawns!

Is this the much vaunted of Americanism of that gang, who have stealthily clubbed together in secret conclaves in the populous cities of the Union, to carry the elections by bloody and shameless deeds upon the innocent and defenceless opponents of a vile humbug?—to bring sorrow to the hearth of the exile?—to bring misery to the widow's home?

Is this the manner in which the Know-Nothings intend to "rule America?" It is the mode in which the Camanches and Chippewas "rule America" in the wilderness; but for native Americans of the Anglo-Saxon stock—for professed Washingtonians—Oh, for shame!

Anti-Know-Nothings of Louisville! You are "spotted!" The inquisitors of the dark lantern order have made out the programme for August and November. "If you go to the polls you'll catch Hell." Remember the prophecy! It is an early demonstration; but it proves the fiends of bigotry are at work.

Property holders of Louisville! Mark the threat! Has not the past taught you the lesson that Know-Nothingism and the city's prosperity are opposites? Are you prepared for another massacre of your citizens—for murder and arson? The threat is being given out. Look to your interests.

Business men of Louisville! Are you willing that the defenseless foreignor shall be murdered, and his family burned up? Is the loss of population and character to the city, to your interest? Or, as members of the Main street committee, do you think native Democrats will be frightened by these threats? NEVER! They will vote; it is a democratic privilege; it is a duty their country now sorely requires of them.

Democrats are freemen! Remember that.

ONE OF THE SPOTTED.

Democratic Meeting.

At an adjourned meeting of the Democratic party of Louisville, held at "Headquarters," on Saturday evening, 21st inst., for the purpose of receiving the report of the Committee appointed at a previous meeting to devise a place of organization, Col. Thomas M. Hicks read the following, which was unanimously adopted:

DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS,
June 19, 1856.

At a meeting of the Central Committee, all the members present except Jas. S. Lithgow and Alex. Gilmore, the following gentlemen were appointed officers: Col. C. L. Harrison, Chairman; Thos. M. Hicks, Secretary; Jas. S. Lithgow Treasurer.

Your committee have adopted the following resolutions, to wit:

Resolved, That G. A. Caldwell, Wm. Preston, Wm. Tompkins, and Jas. Speed, Esqrs., be, and they are hereby, appointed a corresponding committee, whose duty it shall be to open a correspondence throughout the State and country, and to obtain all political information properly applicable to the canvass for State and National officers to be elected in August and November next, and to report, from time to time, their progress to the Central Committee.

Resolved, That Jas. Speed, Wm. H. Pope, Lovi Tyler, Dr. W. B. Caldwell, Coleman Daniel, Judge Thustin, Col. D. R. Young, R. A. Johnson, A. D. Hunt, John Bell, Jos. F. Bullitt, Wm. Muselman, W. H. Stokes, W. F. Barrett, Jas. Rudd, Joseph Gault, Thos. Browner, General Thomas Strange, Isaac Caldwell, and Capt. Thos. Joyce, are appointed a committee, whose duty it shall be to address the authorities upon any subject appertaining to the peace and tranquillity of the city and, if apprehensions are felt of any attempt upon the part of any political party to disturb the peaceable and orderly progress of the coming elections, or violate any existing law or ordinance of the city, said committee shall meet the emergency, as in their judgment best calculated to avert the evil and preserve the quiet of the city.

Resolved, That a committee of three well-known friends be appointed from each ward of the city, and the same number from the town of Portland, who shall meet and organize their respective wards upon just and equitable principles. They shall have power to call ward meetings, appoint sub-ward committees, and to exercise all such duties and privileges as best calculated to effectually organize each ward of the city. They shall report progress, as often as convenient, to the Central Committee. Said committee are further constituted a finance ward board, to collect such contributions, record the sum and names of the said contributors in a book to be kept for said record, and to pay over all such moneys to the Treasurer of the Central Committee, and to receive a receipt for the same, which fund shall be paid out for room rent, gas, lights, printing, and such like necessary expenses, incurred in the prosecution of a just and honorable political canvass.

Your committee would add, that they have received assurance from some of the city authorities and police, as well as from law and order loving citizens of all parties, that for the future all attempts at disorder or violence shall be checked, and that lawless interference with the right of suffrage will be condemned and prevented. We can but hope, for the peace of the community and the good name of our city, that these assurances may be realized.

C. L. HARRISON, Chairman.
THOS. M. HICKS, Secretary.

On motion, the gentlemen composing the committee on organization, appointed at the previous meeting, were requested to act as the Democratic Central Committee of Louisville, during the present canvass.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Samuel Gwynn, John C. Hull, and Walter W. Stapp, were appointed to secure a more suitable room for Democratic headquarters.

On motion, the Democratic and anti-Know-Nothing papers of Lonisville were requested to publish these proceedings.

Adjourned.

JOS. A. SWAGER, Ch'n.
WALTER W. STAPP, Sec.

Congressional Nominations.

The following are the Democratic candidates for Congress so far as nominations have been made:

1st District—James Lockhart.
2d District—William H. English.
3d District—James Hughes.
4th District—James B. Foley.
5th District—Edmund Johnson.
6th District—James M. Gregg.
7th District—John G. Davis.
8th District—Daniel W. Voorhes.
9th District—William Z. Stewart.

The tenth and eleventh Districts have not yet held their conventions.—New Albany Ledger.

One Sure Crop.

The Albany Argus says there is one crop that is sure. Frosts do not kill it, nor rains, nor searching drouth, nor the weevil, nor blights, nor the fly, nor the rot, nor anything from heaven above or earth beneath. It is the crop of falsehoods in the Black Republican press. They are a perennial plant, and bud into bloom, and then bud anew from month to month, for all the year. They scatter on every gale, and they quicken in every soil.

☞ W. R. Kinney, Esq., the youthful Know-Nothing elector for this District, will hold forth to the people of this county at this place, on the 30th inst., when, if he has not committed to memory another speech, we may expect to hear that same old speech about Catholics, so gracefully gleaned and carefully culled by Braying Billy, from the chaste columns of the Louisville Journal.

Owensboro' Democrat.

☞ Col. Fremont is said to be about 41 years of age, and is reported to be a citizen of California, Missouri, or New York.

Abolitionism and Niggerism

OF THE EDITOR OF THE JOURNAL

PRENTICE FOR THE

Equality of the Negro and the White Man,

And Against Slaveholders,

Whom he and Seward call Aristocrats.

ALL MEN HAVE A RIGHT TO LIBERTY, NO MATTER WHAT COLOR.—Journal, of 1844.

Speaking of Mr. Clay, he says:

"The struggle was a fierce one, but the advocates of slavery prevailed, and the young champion of liberty and equal rights, who had made the aristocrats tremble for their ancient prerogative, became unpopular on account of the part he had acted. The true principles of slavery were not then understood; the idea of emancipation was new."

Life of Clay, Second Section, page 21.

PRENTICE LONGING FOR NEGRO FREEDOM IN KENTUCKY—PREDICTING THAT IT WILL COME, AND PROMISING TO HELP.

We have ever looked forward to the day when Kentucky should contain within her bounds no bondmen, and we hope to live to see the light of such a day.

Journal, Aug. 24, 1845.

Many of the best minds of the State are engaged with the subject of emancipation, and they will express freely their opinions and act freely upon them.

We must make up our minds to meet that question, for no human power can stop it.

Journal, Aug. 21, 1845.

We believe there is a settled conviction in the minds of a large majority of the people of Kentucky that their interests—social, moral, and financial—would be promoted by disposing of the slaves, and we believe that one day they will themselves begin to move in the matter. We await the movement, and shall stand ready to second it whenever our aid can be of any avail.

Journal, Oct. 6, 1845.

"To him [Clay] more than any other individual is to be ascribed the great revolution which has taken place in public sentiment upon this subject; a revolution whose wheels must continue to move onward till they reach the goal of universal Freedom. A conviction of the expediency and necessity of ultimate emancipation has been spreading farther and farther among our countrymen, and taking deeper and deeper root in their minds, and it requires not the spirit of prophecy to foretell the end."—Life of Clay, page 22.

PRENTICE ON SLAVERY IN GENERAL—"MONSTER OF EVIL," ETC.

"Mr. Clay views slavery in the abstract with unmingled abhorrence. He JUSTLY considers it a monster of evil; a deadly vampire draining away the life blood of the Republic."—Life of Clay, page 273.

PRENTICE ON THE SUFFERINGS OF THE SLAVE—"FIERCE HEARTS AND DARK HANDS," ETC.

On the same page he adds:

"He [Clay] proclaimed in vivid colors the sufferings, the bodily degradation, of the slave. He spoke of the dangers to be apprehended from the insurrection of the blacks, when in every abiding place of slavery there were fierce hearts brooding over the accumulated wrongs of years, and dark hands ready to grasp the fire-brand and the dagger."

PRENTICE EXCUSING THE NEGRO FOR KILLING HIS MASTER, ON ACCOUNT OF THE BAD PASSIONS FOSTERED AND UNCHAINED IN ALL THEIR WILDNESS AND STRENGTH BY THE WRONGS OF SLAVERY.

On page 17 of the Life of Henry Clay, he says:

The law of manslaughter inquires only as to the fact of the existence of the excitement at the time the deed is perpetrated, and the provocations are as valid in behalf of the slave as any other member of the community, unless it can be shown that the endurance of the wrongs and miseries of slavery annihilates the darker passions, instead of fostering and unchaining them in all their wildness and strength.

PRENTICE MAKES A HERO OF SAID NEGRO.

Soon afterward he was borne to the place of execution, and the spirit and pride of character which he there displayed is said to have been worthy of the man patriot. Being asked whether he was anxious that his life should be spared—"No," said he, sternly, "I would not live a day longer, unless in the enjoyment of liberty."

MR. CLAY NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS NIGGERISM.

I deem it proper to say that Mr. Clay is in no degree responsible for the manner or matter of a single paragraph in the volume. I have often had the pleasure of meeting him in society, but I am confident that he has communicated to me far less information with regard to himself than he naturally would have done had he not known that I was preparing a sketch of his life. Some months ago my publishers applied to him, by letter, to know whether he was willing that his biography should be given to the world. In his answer, he stated that as his acts were before his fellow-citizens, he could properly exercise no censorship or control over the contents, either of friends or enemies, but that he must frankly acknowledge the repugnance of his own private feelings to the contemplated publication. Had I read the answer in season, I should have remained in New England.

PRENTICE AGAINST THE "SIN" OF EXTENDING SLAVERY.

They (the Liberty party) are, above all others, the men upon whose heads rest the sin of extending the area of slavery, for they were warned and besought, through the public press and by their fellow-citizens, to frown down all connection with Texas and her "peculiar institutions."—Journal, Feb. 21, 1845.

PRENTICE'S APOLOGY FOR HIS ABOLITIONISM—ON ACCOUNT OF BAD RAISING.

The editor of the Democrat has raked up extracts from our biography of Mr. Clay, written and published upwards of a quarter of a century ago, when we were a citizen of New England, to show, not that we were in favor of abolishing slavery, but that we then thought slavery a very bad thing. Undoubtedly we did think thus of it; we had at that time seen no person that thought, or seemed to think, differently. We were educated and brought up from childhood to regard slavery as an evil wherever it existed, the opposite view of the matter having never been presented to our mind. We do not imagine that, a quarter of a century ago, a man of any party or degree could be found in New England who did not think of slavery what we said of it in the biography we wrote. The subject of slavery was not a fiftieth part so well understood there at that time as it now, and it is not very well understood there now. We ourselves, from thinking slavery under all circumstances an evil, have come to think it an evil in climates where it is not required, and a good in those where it is.

[Here Prentice confesses his moral sin against every man who denounced attacks upon slavery—his sneers at any defence of the institution of slavery, and his hope that some northern man would kick one of the chivalry, as he sneeringly calls southern men.

THE CHIVALRY.—The chivalry went off very brilliantly a few days ago in Congress. Mr. Burt, of South Carolina, was the gun of the occasion. He was making a chivalrous speech on the subject of Abolition petitions, and of course waxed very warm and intensely eloquent; amongst other things of burning and blushing pride and scorn, in the report of his speech in the Intelligencer, Mr. Burt said:

"He should give just offence to his constituents and incur his own discretion, if he could be induced ever to vindicate on this floor any institution of his state; but he would say that language was impotent to express the utter scorn and contempt with which the south regarded the miserable, upstart, huckstering mercenary of the North, in her attempt to hold up the institutions of the South to the contempt and reprobation of the world."

Now this is what we like hugely. It is a fair sample of chivalry approaching the full-head intensity at which it becomes more brilliant and scorching than sunbeams at midday. If we had been at the chivalric gentleman's side, we should have patted him heartily on the shoulder and shouted—Go it, Burt. Nothing can be truer than it would be very unbecoming in the chivalry to vindicate any of the institutions it cherishes, which were framed in accordance with the dictates of the most superlative, pre-eminent wisdom. The dunces minds that grow up in the North are wholly unable to appreciate the chivalry institutions, and manifest the greatest presumption in striving to ascend to the height of the great argument on which they repose.

Mr. Beardsly, of New York, got on his feet, and said a few words in extenuation of what he had previously said, and for which chivalry was skinning him.—Whereupon the chivalry boiled over, and exclaimed:

"Whoever used such epithets as had been applied to the institution of slavery he denounced here, and held himself responsible elsewhere."

Dr. Beardsly grew fierce, and asked—"What is that you say, sir?"

In reply, the chivalry said—"I said, I held myself responsible for my words elsewhere." He here repeated that the gentleman from New York (Mr. Bradley) had used expressions that had no foundation. If this remark was offensive, he left it to the person offended to seek his address. The gentleman had denounced the institution of slavery—or perhaps not denounced it—but he had spoken disrespectfully of an institution with which he (Mr. B.) and his constituents were identified—an institution in the middle of which he had grown up, and one to which the State which he in part represented attributed much that was illustrious in her history and ennobling in her condition.

The most illustrious thing slavery has produced is, the South Carolina chivalry, as characteristically illustrated in the conduct of Mr. Burt. To speak disparagingly of such an institution, should of course subject impertinent Northerners to such excruciating torments as were inflicted by the eloquent tongue of chivalry on poor Beardsly.

But the chivalry tells Beardsly that it is responsible elsewhere. This is very significant, and calls up visions of an invitation for pistols and coffee for two. But Beardsly, like all other Northern Locofocos, will love that way of adjusting difficulties. The chivalry is perfectly aware of this fact. It knows Northern men will not shoot nor be shot. They hate cold lead. In this fact is to be found the reason why the chivalry is always so accommodating in settling these small matters that way. If the chivalry really thought there was a chance of a fight, like its great exemplar, Sir John Falstaff, it would be very particular in making propositions which might end in a shivering of the body and a shaking of the hands.

What we wonder at particularly is, the Christian manner in which the Northern men bear these eloquent outpourings of scorn and contempt. We wonder that a Northern foot cannot be found with an instinct to guide itself to the chivalry's coat-tail. A few such applications would draw the spirit from the head to the feet of the chivalry, and then, instead of talking of bloody and thunder, it would take to its heels and win admiration for its wonderful fleetness.

Prentice, in 1848, Striving to Persuade the South to Accept the Wilmot Proviso.

HE MAKES LIGHT OF THE PROVISO.

"WILMOT PROVISO.— * * But in point of fact, the Wilmot proviso presents no difficulty, for it raises no question. The question of Slavery to attach to the new territory acquired, does not appertain to the General Government, either in its treaty or law-making power. The territory, in regard to Slavery, will take and hold that character with which it comes within the boundary of the United States, until States of the Union are established therein, and then those States will determine the question of free or slave labor. When Louisiana and Texas were annexed, Slavery was lawful, and the institution continued. In other territory in which new States have been formed Slavery did not exist, and therefore Slavery was not legal there while the territory was under the jurisdiction of the Union, and it has not been established by those States since their admission into the Union. In the territory now to be acquired in Mexico Slavery does not exist, and, by the general law, slave titles into it, before its acquired by the United States will, in contemplation of law, be free; that is, in a suit for liberty by such slaves, the judge would be bound to declare them free."

Louisville Journal, March 7, 1848.

AGAIN MAINTAINS THAT SLAVERY IS A LOCAL INSTITUTION—THE MASTER NOT TO BE PROTECTED IN HIS PROPERTY IN THE TERRITORIES

"A large number of very distinguished jurists and citizens contend that the doctrine which we have sustained in this paper is the true constitutional doctrine, namely, that as Slavery is a local institution it cannot exist in any Territory independent of the laws ordained for its existence; that as the territory of Texas from Mexico comes into the Union free territory, Slavery cannot be introduced into it without a special law to that effect, and that as Congress has no right to legislate on the subject of Slavery, the question of its existence in those Territories must be left to the people when they come to form State governments for themselves."—Louisville Journal, July 17, 1848.

TRIES TO PERSUADE THE SOUTH THAT THE PROVISO WILL DO NO HARM.

"But already we perceive in every part of the country indications that the question under consideration is rapidly assuming its true dimensions. It begins now to appear that it is not a death-struggle between the North and South for supremacy—that their tranquility is really not disturbed or endangered any more than it was by a bill creating a Territorial government in Oregon, or in any other sense than it would be by the introduction of a new Free State North of Missouri, or the abolition of Slavery North, or the abolition of Slavery in Delaware and Maryland."

Louisville Journal, December 6, 1848.

PRENTICE DECLARES HIMSELF READY TO ACCEPT THE WILMOT PROVISO, OR ANYTHING ELSE.

"We confess we are not very anxious as to the manner of the settlement of the Territorial Slavery question, provided it can be settled permanently and without danger to the Union."

Louisville Journal, December 2, 1848.

DENOUNCES SOUTHERN MEN FOR BEING UNCOMPROMISING ON THE SUBJECT OF THE WILMOT PROVISO—THOUGHT THEY OUGHT TO BE REBUKED FOR THEIR INSOLENCE BY NORTHERN MEN.

"Heretofore the Northern Locofocos have tamely submitted to all requisitions imposed on them by their southern brethren. They have submitted to such surrender of their own views for the sake of harmony and the success of the party. The South has always maintained an uncompromising attitude, and declared itself unwilling to make any sacrifices for the sake of the party. In the Convention of 1844, the Southern delegates required the sacrifice of Mr. Van Buren, whose friends composed a majority of the members of the Convention. The South was stubborn on the point, and the North, after a little restlessness on the subject, submitted, and Van Buren was thrown overboard. Fairness would require that the Southern delegates should sacrifice their predilections in the Convention this year, but Alabama and Virginia have, in advance, declared they will not do so, and have further said that if the Northern delegates will not do their bidding, they will rebel against the nomination. Such arrogance ought to be rebuked, and will be rebuked, if the delegates from the Free States are as staunch defenders of liberty and equality as they pretend to be."

Louisville Journal, March 23, 1848.

REJOICED THAT THE VAN BUREN MEN WOULD RESIST SOUTHERN DICTATION.

"Their resolutions [the Freesoil Van Buren] breathe a firm and more decided hostility to the dictation of the South, and iteration of such hostility at this time, is highly significant."

Louisville Journal, April 21, 1848.

PRENTICE THOUGHT IT A MERIT IN A NORTHERN STATESMAN TO BE FOR THE WILMOT PROVISO.

In 1843, he said:

"Since the death of Silas Wright some of the Locofocos have asserted that he was opposed to the Wilmot proviso. They seem to consider it their duty to vindicate his fair fame in this way. Do they think it very criminal in a Northern statesman to favor a measure to prevent the South from gaining the ascendancy in the councils of the nation? Do they fancy that patriotism requires a Northern man to endeavor to strengthen an interest hostile to his own section?"

PRENTICE DECIDEDLY AGAINST THE PRESIDENT VETOING THE WILMOT PROVISO.

"We have strong hope the controversy (about Slavery) will be adjusted amicably. At any rate, no good could possibly grow out of the arrest of the Wilmot proviso by the executive veto. Whether the proviso is expressed or not, no man who understands the temper of the whole people of the North can doubt that its defeat by the interposition of the veto power of the President would result in the most terrible condition of political hostility between North and South. If any President of the United States were to put his veto upon the Wilmot proviso, the people of the non-slaveholding States, who have the supremacy of members, would put the question of agitation into the best Presidential election, and then, by their strength as a sectional and geographical party, elect men who will not veto the proviso."

Louisville Journal, December 2, 1848.

PRENTICE PREPARING TO SELL OUT THE SOUTH TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The Black Republican party of the Northern States had enough and dangerous enough, its claims and pretensions never will be, and never should be, admitted or recognized; but we believe in our hearts that even this party is less outrageous in its proposed aggressions upon the South than the Northern Locofoco party would be, if, no longer hoping to make Southern capital, it were left to the unbridled indulgence of its leveling passions.

A Sad Mistake—Waking up the Wrong Passenger.

On Saturday night, at the Fusion street meeting, on several occasions, the crowd was vociferous in calling upon Hon. John Brough to take the stand and make a speech for them. As Dr. Ellis and Lawyer Newcomb had bored them for near two hours, they again loudly called for Brough—Brough—Brough. Mr. B. at the very urgent request of those near him, ascended the stand, and said:

"GENTLEMEN:—I am not a politician at present: for twelve years past I have not troubled myself with political affairs. Like Rip Van Winkle, I have been twelve years politically asleep, and if I were now to wake, as a politician, I could scarcely imagine what political changes might have taken place during the time I have slept. I was always a Democrat, I never made any other than Democratic speeches in all my life, and I never expect to make any other kind. More than that, I was even a Loco-Foco, and even now I am so much of a Loco-Foco, that I am not sure, that if I should strike my heel severely upon the ground, that I might not again ignite. I shall not attempt to make a speech at this time, even a Democratic speech, for the reason that if I should now begin where I left off twelve years ago, my speech might be too much of a free soil speech, or it might not be at present an orthodox Democratic speech. But, gentlemen, if I was compelled to take choice of the candidates now presented for President, I am not certain but I should be compelled to select Mr. Buchanan as my choice.

You will have the goodness to excuse me for not attempting to make a speech, as I did not arise with that intention, but only to return you my thanks for your kindness in so anxiously calling me to the stand."

The Democrats present, in large numbers cheered Mr. Brough, while the Fusionists were dumb seeming to think they had waked up the wrong passenger.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

THE BRITISH PRESS ON THE DISMISSAL OF MR. CRAMPTON.—The London Times, of June 5th, says:

The American press endeavors to persuade itself that England will be ready to appoint a successor in the place of Mr. Crampton, and suggests that the three Consuls can be retained in their situations, by way of compromise. In the first of these views we apprehend that the writers considerably overestimate the placability of the English government and people. We will not, on the one hand, offer insult or offence; but, on the other, we are not disposed tamely to submit to it. Those who endeavor to persuade themselves that we shall learn the dismissal of Mr. Crampton without enforcing the retirement of Mr. Dallas, are calculating upon an amount of endurance totally inconsistent with the character of Englishmen. Did we believe that Mr. Crampton had really been guilty of any offence against the United States, there would need little pressure or remonstrance to induce us at once to remove him from the situation he would have dishonored; but, if an attempt be made to sacrifice him to the emergencies of local politics, we shall feel that his quarrel is our own, and certainly not pass it over without distinctly marking our sense of the indignity.

Flags and Transparencies.

The Fourth of July—the birth-day of our country—is rapidly approaching, and will doubtless be celebrated in a becoming manner by all our citizens. The American flag should float from the house tops, and national airs should swell upon every breeze. And in this connection we may mention that we have just been shown some of the largest and finest flags and transparencies we have ever seen, gotten up especially for this approaching anniversary, and at prices so low as to cast a doubt upon the patriotism of any and every man who does not illuminate and decorate his dwelling on that ever memorable day. They were printed at the Cincinnati Enquirer office, the only office in the Union which gets them up on so enlarged and elegant a scale, and will be offered to our citizens to-day by the Agent, Mr. J. McManus. We may say, that in the event he should not see all our citizens, that orders left at his room, No. 18, Exchange Hotel, will receive prompt attention.

Persons desirous of showing their patriotism on the Fourth, can see a few of the flags and transparencies by calling at this office.

THE MASONIC CELEBRATION.—The Masonic procession, says the New Albany Ledger of yesterday, as it passed up Main street at 11 o'clock today, was a grand and imposing affair, far surpassing, in the magnificence of regalia and costume, anything of the kind which ever took place in this city. The procession numbered about five hundred persons, including a number of the more aged and infirm brethren in carriages. The rear was brought up by the Knights Templar on horseback. Their black steeds, black costumes, three cornered hats, and waving plumes, with their martial appearance, recalled to memory those days of chivalry so graphically depicted by Sir Walter Scott, when the Christian Knights went forth to rescue the Holy Land from the dominion of the infidels.

Thus far our Masonic friends may congratulate themselves on the success of their pageant. It is all that could be wished.

GRAND GIFT CONCERT.—The Julien Minstrels advertise with us this morning, that they will give a grand gift festival on next Saturday evening, and of course will have a full house. Last night and Monday night, they gave concerts to large audiences in New Albany; will give one more there to-night. To-morrow night they give a concert in Jeffersonville; a gift concert Friday night; and on Saturday night in this city.

LADIES' BAZAAR.—The manner in which the ladies have fitted up Odd Fellows' Hall is very beautiful, and the assortment they present for sale is one of the very best. If you wish to enjoy an evening pleasantly, Odd Fellows' Hall is the place. When weary of promenading about the Hall, you can pass back into the refreshment room and feast yourselves on all the good things of the season. Of course you will go to-night.

LAST LARGE SPRING SALE.—We call the attention of our readers to the auction advertisement of Gowdy, Terry & Co., in our columns this morning. The sale will commence at 9½ o'clock this morning, and will be the last of the season. All in want of goods of the best quality in their line, would do well to attend and buy on good terms at their own prices.

☞ If John Lester, an Irishman, and seaman on board the United States steamship Spitfire, United States Navy, in the war with Mexico, will call at this office he will learn something of benefit to him. We would be pleased to see any of his friends who can give us information of his whereabouts.

A Chance for All.

Let it be remembered that A. Gowdy & Co.'s auction sales close to-day. It is the last chance, and a most excellent one for good bargains. Let everybody be on hand.

☞ We had a most delightful rain yesterday afternoon. From appearances it was general. Last night the indications were favorable to more falling weather. We have had hardly enough yet.

FAST.—Adams's Express now furnishes us with St. Louis papers just two days in advance of the mail.

☞ Adams' Express is constant in its favors to this office.

☞ Mr. L. L. Burke will accept our thanks for his favors.

HON. G. W. JOHNSTON, JUDGE.

TUESDAY, June 24.

The cases this morning were of little importance.

Two ordinance warrants against Henry O'Neal were continued till the first of July. One against Zach Sherly, for tying his horse to a tree on the sidewalk, was continued till the 25th. One against Cornwall & Bro., on account of their candle factory, was continued till the 26th.

One against M. O'Connell and one against Theodore Chaney were dismissed at defendant's costs. Joseph Myers confessed judgment and was fined five dollars.

Hercules Walker and John Watson, disorderly conduct and fighting with each other. Watson cut Hercules with a knife. Bail of Watson in $500, to answer a charge of misdemeanor, and of Walker in $200 for three months, for his good behavior.

Rebecca Waters and Sarah Ann Banks had Jno. Watson up on peace warrants, and he was required to give bail in each case in $300 for 3 months not to molest the complainants.

John Sinkhorn, drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Bail in $200 for four months.

A young widower was charged with stealing old copper from Wright & Bridgford. It was shown that he had always been a man of unexceptionable character, but that his mind had become totally impaired by a disappointment in an affair of the heart. Discharged.

Dr. Vanderslice, drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Bail in $100 for four months.

Com'th by Mary J. McCullom vs John Swinney, peace warrant. Bail in $100 for four months.

Miles Dolin, disorderly conduct. Own recognizance in $100 for three months.

John Fravel, drunk. Bail in $100 for one month.

Geo. Johnson, drunk. Discharged.

Geo. Shane, assault and battery on Sidney Smith. Continued to the 25th.

Henry Weber was drunk and got into a scrape with a friend. Discharged.

THE WORLD MOVES.—"Protestantism on the Bosphorus," is the heading of an article in the press, in which a correspondent of the London Times, under date of Constantinople, (Tuesday) May 12th, 1856, says:

"Yesterday (White Sunday) the bells rang for the first time on the shores of the Bosphorus, inviting the faithful to Protestant worship. The chapel at Ortakoi was opened. It was entirely got up by private subscription, and unaddicted and unaided, the English colony of Ortakoi decided to waive all sectarian differences, and to unite in building a suitable place of divine worship; they have completely succeeded, and it would be difficult to imagine anything more simple, tasteful and suitable to the purpose, namely, to serve as a temporary church. It is situated on one of the highest points above Ortakoi, commanding a beautiful view over the lower part of the Bosphorus and the Golden Horn."

MAN KILLED.—Mr. John Spillman, who resides in Boonville, Warrick, county, started from Evansville, with his team and a load for home day before yesterday. At Newburg he stayed at a grocery till about 1 o'clock in the morning, when with a friend he started to Boonville in his wagon. When about two miles from Newburg, one wheel of the wagon run off a little bridge of the plank road, and Spillman was thrown out, with a portion of the load upon him. His head hit a corner of the wagon, and he was fatally wounded, living only a short time.—Evansville Journal, 21st.

☞ We are informed that there are other matters besides inciting the penitentiary convicts to mutiny for which French, of the Jeffersonville Republican, will likely be held to a strict accountability before the bar of public opinion. The manner in which he discharged his duties as agent to dispose of certain University bonds in New York, is by no means satisfactory to many of those interested, and the probability is that he will be called upon to explain certain transactions now involved in mystery.—N. A. Ledger.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—A boy was thought to be drowning in the Ohio river, opposite Spencer Township yesterday, and Mr. Frank Rudephal, of Allegheny City, jumped in to save him, but was dragged under by the struggles of the boy and drowned. The boy was saved in an exhausted condition by another gentleman.—Cin. Com.

JAMES BUCHANAN.

——"A combination and a form indeed
Where all the gods did seem to set their seal
To give the world assurance of A MAN."

The Louisville Journal perpetrates a falsehood when it says that the Columbia (S. C.) Times is a Democratic sheet. It is a Know-Nothing concern, and supports Fillmore for the Presidency.

We learn that Jno. W. Tucker, Esq., of Westport, Oldham county, has quit the Know-Nothing party, and announced his intention to support Buchanan and Breckinridge. Before joining the order which Judge Tucker now esteems it his duty to dissolve connection with, he was an Old-Line Whig.

The St. John Observer states that another attempt to lay a chain cable for a telegraph across the Atlantic will soon be made. The length of the cable will be 2,400 miles, and two steamers, each with 1,200 miles of cable, will meet midway between Ireland and Newfoundland, unite the cables, and proceed in opposite directions.

A large number of Know-Nothings in Mercer county, having become satisfied that the order in the North is thoroughly abolitionized, and that the Democracy are the only national party in the country to whom the South can look for the maintenance of her constitutional rights and guarantees, have determined to leave the order and cast their suffrage for Buchanan and Breckinridge.

We find the following card in the Canton Ky.) Dispatch. There are thousands of other good and honest men in Kentucky who were deceived and entrapped in like manner. Let them lose no time in once more becoming freemen:

To the President, Officers, and Members of Smithland Council, of the American Order, in Livingston County, Ky.

Take notice, that we joined said Council, believing at the time that it was national, and that the order would redound to the benefit of the country; but finding that we are deceived, we renounce our connection with the same.

Not knowing when your Council will meet again, we take this method of giving you notice of our intentions.

"Married well" means now-a-days, yoking two fools together, with plenty of money or land to justify the folly. Hearts, brains, and personal worth have gone out of date.

The nomination of Buchanan and Breckinridge has excited a degree of enthusiasm among the sterling Democracy of Jessamine county, that promises to result in a tremendous majority for the ticket in November. The opposition who know Major Breckinridge so well, and can testify to his worth, owe it to themselves to give "Old Kentuck" a lift in the person of her accomplished young statesman.

Here is another chance for K. N.'s, ambitious to lose money on the result in this State. We quote from the Paducah Democrat:

"We are authorized by a gentleman of Paducah, who has the cash, to say that he will bet five thousand dollars that Kentucky will go for Buchanan and Breckinridge, for President and Vice President, in November next."

A Human Life Saved!

DOWAGIAC, Mich., March 11, 1856.

J. A. RHODES, ESQ.—Dear Sir: As I took your medicine to sell on consignment, "no cure no pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

W. S. Conklin told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while using it, until my lungs and liver were congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill! The doctors, too, did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

H. M. Conklin says: "I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken by quantity of quinine and specifics without any a good result, from 25th August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which effected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bottle."

S. M. Conklin was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M.'s. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so specify.

Yours with respect, A. HUNTINGTON.

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me.

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to CAUTION THE PUBLIC in these words:

"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then, with brazen impudence, end their pamphlet with the exclamation, 'Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares,'" &c.

Now I take pleasure in saying that the CAUTION referred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, except the certificates of cures, and the certificate of the celebrated chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of New York, in favor of its perfectly HARMLESS CHARACTER, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE IS

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THEY don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula.
Two boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One box always cures the Jaundice.
Three boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two boxes have completely cured the worst of Ulcers on the legs.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the Headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses, often repeated, expel every Worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic, they have no equal.
One box cures Derangement of the Liver.
Half a box cures Cold.
They Purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill, there is not their equal in the world. They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

Opening of the Blue Lick Springs.

TUREMAN & HUGHES, PROPRIETORS.

THESE GENTLEMEN HAVE just completed an arrangement with the owners of this far-famed Hotel and Mineral Spring, and will open it for the reception of visitors on the 15th day of June. This very extensive Hotel and Building is owned by a beautiful stream, upon the banks of the Licking river, in Nicholas county, Kentucky, twenty miles from Paris, Kentucky, upon the Covington and Lexington railroad, and twenty-four miles from Maysville, on the Ohio river. There are excellent macadamized roads, and fine roomy coaches leave each place every day for the Springs. This well-known Watering Place is celebrated for its summer and winter properties of its water, for its mineral and healthy situation, and for its romantic drives and walks. The house is very large, and recently refitted with a view to comfort and convenience. It is furnished in a range of balconies and porticoes, and has an excellent stock of cultivated and ornamental shade trees, its supper and dinner tables, its large and commodious stables &c., all tend to make Blue Lick the most delightful watering place, and pleasant summer retreat in the West.

The proprietors have entirely renovated the Hotel and grounds. The furniture is new and good, and they can promise, from their long experience in catering to the taste and comfort of the public, that the house shall be kept in a style inferior to no Hotel in the West.

JOHN HUGHES.

I HAD BEEN AFFLICTED WITH a disease resembling bronchitis for several years. I was constantly coughing during the night and my lungs and chest pained me very much after a coughing spell.

I do not cough, my lungs do not pain me, and I feel well. I can, from my own experience of the beneficial effects of his remedy, recommend it to all who are afflicted as I was. R. H. BOUSSEAU.
